O R D E R

Plaintiff claims that the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) entered into an agreement with plaintiff, drawn from several documents, oral understandings, and the parties' conduct, whereby plaintiff would pay HUD an inspection fee and HUD would inspect for plaintiff's benefit the construction of plaintiff's housing project. Plaintiff further claims that HUD failed properly to inspect the project and that therefore the project was shoddily constructed.

Plaintiff petitions the court for a monetary award as compensation for the damage it has incurred.

Defendant claims that HUD did not enter into any agreement with plaintiff to inspect the project for plaintiff's benefit. Defendant claims that the document which contains the reference to inspection of the project and to the inspection fee was between HUD and the mortgagee, not between HUD and plaintiff. Defendant further contends that HUD inspected the project only in order to protect HUD's commitment to insure plaintiff's mortgage. Defendant claims that the inspection fee charged was a cost of the mortgage insurance and not, as plaintiff claims, compensation for guaranteeing that the project was properly constructed. Defendant concludes that since there is no contract between it and plaintiff and since, according to defendant, there is no implied-in-fact agreement between the parties whereby defendant obligated itself to inspect the project for the benefit of plaintiff, the court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over plaintiff's claim.

Defendant moves for summary judgment and plaintiff has cross-moved for partial summary judgment.^{1/} We hold that no

^{1/} After the case was fully briefed and submitted on defendant's motion for summary judgment, plaintiff moved for leave to file its cross-motion for partial summary judgment out of time, accompanied by its cross-motion and a supporting brief. The court grants plaintiff's motion for leave to file the proffered documents and has fully considered them in rendering its determination.

contract over which we have jurisdiction was created between plaintiff and defendant that obligated defendant to inspect the project for the benefit of plaintiff.

On June 16, 1977, plaintiff and HUD entered into an agreement whereby HUD committed itself under the provisions of section 221(d)(4) of the National Housing Act to insure plaintiff's mortgage obligation. The agreement was contingent, in part, upon HUD's review and approval of (1) the project mortgage, (2) the project construction contract, and (3) the project architect agreement. Plaintiff obtained a mortgage for its project, Brookside Apartments, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, from Mellon Bank, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Plaintiff entered into a construction contract on October 17, 1977, with a joint venture construction company, Monal Construction Company and L-D Building Company.

Plaintiff's claim that HUD agreed to inspect the project for plaintiff's benefit relies on three contract provisions. The first two provisions are part of the mortgage commitment agreement between HUD and the mortgagee, Mellon Bank. Paragraph 3(c) of that agreement states that HUD has the right of approval over the construction contract. Paragraph 5(b) states that:

During the course of construction, the Commissioner and his representatives shall at all times have access to the property and the right to inspect the progress of construction, and an inspection fee in the amount of $13,670 shall be paid upon the initial insurance endorsement of the mortgage of the mortgage note. The inspection of construction by a representative of the Commissioner shall be only for the benefit and protection of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

The third provision is article 3-B of the construction contract between plaintiff and the construction company. That article section states, in part,

B. Each month after the commencement of work hereunder, the Contractor shall make a monthly request for payment * * * by the Owner for work done during the preceding month. Each request for payment shall be filed at least ten (10) days before the date payment is desired. Subject to the approval of the Lender and the Commissioner, the Contractor shall be entitled to payment thereon ***.

Plaintiff concludes that HUD's right to approve the construction contract linked with HUD's inspection privileges and its right of approval over payments to the contractor created an implied-in-fact contract between defendant and plaintiff whereby HUD obligated itself to inspect the project for the benefit of plaintiff. In other words, plaintiff argues that HUD was responsible to protect plaintiff's interest in the project being properly constructed because (1) all the relevant documents used in the development of the project were HUD-drafted forms, (2) HUD had the right of approval over all payments of funds to the contractor (3) HUD inspected the project to see that it complied with the construction contract, and (4) plaintiff was not empowered with the authroity to withhold funds from the contractor as a penalty for poor workmanship.

Because the case is presented on us on motions for summary judgment, we must examine the facts presented in the light most favorable to each non-moving party. In plaintiff's cross-motion, we are asked to find that the parties had entered into an agreement; that the insurance commitment between defendant and the mortgagee is evidence of the agreement between defendant and plaintiff; that defendant had full authority to draft the construction contract; that the construction contract gave defendant the exclusive authority to inspect the project and to distribute funds to the contractor; and that the exclusive nature of HUD's authority to inspect and distribute funds implies the inspection was for plaintiff's benefit.

We decline to make such findings however. First, the agreements give both the mortgagee and HUD the right to inspect the project and the right to approve the payment of funds to the contractor. HUD's authority was not exclusive. Second, defendant points out that the insurance commitment only defined the relationship between HUD and the mortgagee. Plaintiff claims that the insurance commitment is evidence of the agreement between it and defendant with respect to provisions which are to plaintiff's advantage, but claims that the same document is not relevant to the case with respect to provisions that are adverse to plaintiff. If the commitment is a part of the agreement which plaintiff argues exists between the parties, the entire document must be considered. Third, plaintiff makes ambiguous references to certain oral understandings between it and HUD. However, in response to defendant's demand for particu-larization of these understandings, plaintiff only cites oral statements which were later incorporated in one of the documents in question. We therefore find that there are no oral understandings which are outside of or are in conflict with the terms of the documents. In view of these facts, we cannot grant plaintiff's cross-motion.

Defendant's motion presents issues which, viewed in terms most favorable to plaintiff, can be resolved by the court without further proceedings. The program under which plaintiff's mortgage was insured follows a general pattern of procedures. The prospective lender, here the Mellon Bank, submits to HUD an "Application for Mortgage Note Insurance." The developer, plaintiff, at the same time submits to HUD a detailed statement about the proposed project. HUD reviews these documents and, if the project warrants, enters into a "Commitment to Insure" with the mortgagee. The "Commitment" delineates the obligations between the parties to the agreement, HUD and the mortgagee. In the present case, HUD obligated itself to "endorse for insurance * * * a mortgage note." The balance of the Commitment details what must be done for HUD to be so obligated. The requirements include providing HUD with copies of the mortgage and the construction contract for its approval. They also include the requirement in paragraph 5(b), supra, that HUD have access to the project for inspection. Finally, the owner/developer of the project must enter into a "Regulatory Agreement" with HUD whereby the owner/developer agrees to comply with certain HUD regulations concerning the operation of the project after it is completed.

In order for an implied-in-fact contract to be created, there must be a meeting of the minds which is inferred from the conduct of the parties. However, the "evidence" which plaintiff cites does not indicate that such a meeting or minds took place between it and defendant. Defendant and plaintiff are not both parties to any of the written agreements which plaintiff claims are evidence of an agreement between defendant and plaintiff. Nothing in the agreements indicates that defendant obligated itself to protect plaintiff's interest in the project being properly constructed. In fact, the agreement which specifically refers to HUD's right of inspection, and the inspection fee, states that the inspection was "only for the benefit and protection of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development."^{1/} While this clause is contained in an agreement between HUD and the mortgagee, it is evidence of HUD's intention to make clear that it was not obligating itself to inspect the project for the benefit of any other entity.

^{1/} Cf. United States v. Neustadt, 366 U.S. 696, 708-10 & n.24 (1961) (FHA appraisal of home for purposes of guaranteeing mortgage pursuant to § 266 of the National Housing Act is for the protection of the Government, not the buyer, and does not give rise to a claim under the Federal Tort Claims Act).

As stated above, the construction contract between plaintiff and the construction company gives the mortgagee and HUD jointly the right to approve the payment. It is common practice for construction mortgagees to have control over the purse strings and again there is no indication that defendant's right of approval has any other purpose than protection of defendant. The contract does not indicate that plaintiff is itself unable to inspect the project and report construction flaws to the mortgagee in order that they be corrected. Plaintiff is further protected from defects in workmanship by article 6 of the construction contract which requires the contractor to furnish plaintiff a performance bond against which plaintiff can make claims for the contractor's failure to complete the contracted work.

The present case is easily distinguishable from the two cases plaintiff relies upon for defendant's obligation. Paccon, Inc. v. United States, 185 Ct. Cl. 24, 399 F.2d 162 (1968), concerned a construction contract between the Government and a building contractor. In Paccon, there was an express contract between the Government and that plaintiff, which the court interpreted. The instant case does not concern an express contract and the court's interpretation of the express conditions of a particular contract has little value as precedent.

The second case, Somali Development Bank v. United States, 205 Ct. Cl. 741, 508 F.2d 817 (1974), involved an agreement between the Government and that plaintiff for a loan to that plaintiff to be used for the development of businesses in Somali. The court held that the petition raised a claim that sounded in tort and was therefore outside our jurisdiction. The court held that the petition raised a claim that sounded in tort and was therefore outside our jurisdiction. The court rejected that plaintiff's contention that there was an implied-in-fact contract created whereby defendant guaranteed the success of the plaintiff's enterprise when the Government loaned funds to that plaintiff. Instead the court held that such a warranty is not implied in the part of defendant "where the warranty is not expressly provided for in a statute of contract." Id., 205 Ct. Cl. at 751, 508 F.2d at 822. Somali offers the present plaintiff no grounds upon which to base its claim.

Plaintiff has offered no evidence which would indicate that a "meeting of the minds" took place between it and defendant whereby defendant obligated itself to inspect the workmanship of the construction of the project for plaintiff's benefit. There is nothing to indicate that the inspection fee was anything more than a cost of obtaining the mortgage insurance. Certainly nothing in the statute or regulations governing the transaction empowers defendant to enter into an arrangement such as plaintiff envisions. This is strong evidence that defendant never intended to engage in inspecting the project for plaintiff's benefit. While plaintiff may have been harmed by the poor workmanship, no evidence has been presented which would indicate a breach by defendant of an express or implied-in-fact contract -- the only contracts over which we have jurisdiction.

When the party moving for summary judgment makes out a convincing showing that no genuine issues of fact remain, the burden is upon the other party to demonstrate adequately by receivable facts that a real, not a formal, controversy exists.

See Mandalay Shores Co-op Housing Ass'n v.

Pierce, 667 F.2d 1195 (5th Cir. 1982).

Plaintiff has failed to meet that burden.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for leave to file its cross-motion for partial summary judgment out-of-time is granted. Without hearing oral argument, and after carefully considering all the submissions, we grant defendant's motion for summary judgment, deny plaintiff's cross-motion for partial summary judgment, and dismiss the petition.

B. The Contractor shall correct any defects due to faulty materials of workmanship which appear within one year from the date of substantial completion.

C. If the work is not substantially completed in accordance with the Drawings and Specifications, including any authorized changes, by the date specified above, or by such date to which the contract time may be extended, the maximum sum slated in Article 3A(1) below shall be reduced by $984.24 as liquidated damages, for each day of delay until the date of substantial completion. The total of any such liquidated damages shall be reduced by an amount equal to the project's net operating income (as defined and determined by the Commissioner) for the period upon which liquidated damages based.

D. The date of substantial completion shall be the date the FHA Chief Underwriter signs the final Project Inspection Report (FHA Form No. 2449).

investment of said moneys), said income not to exceed $14,821.00.

(3) If, upon completion, the Contractor shall have received cash payments in excess of (a) the actual cost of construction, plus (b) the cash fee specified in paragraph (1), plus the additional amount to be paid under the provisions of paragraph (3), all such excess shall be refunded to the Owner.

B. Each month after the commencement of work hereunder, the Contractor shall make a monthly request for payment (in quadruplicate on FHA Form No. 2448) by the Owner for work done during the preceeding month. Each request for payment shall be filed at least ten (10) days before the date payment is desired. Subject to the approval of the Lender and the Commissioner, the Contractor shall be entitled to payment thereon in an amount equal to (1) the total value of classes of the work acceptably completed; plus

(2) the value of materials and equipment not incorporated in the work, but delivered to and suitably stored at the site; less (3) 10 percent holdback and less prior payments. The "values" of both (1) and (2) shall be computed in accordance with the amounts assigned to classes of the work in the "Contractor's and/or Mortgagor's Cost Breakdown", attached hereto as Exhibit
"A". The Contractor agrees that no materials or equipment required by the Specifications will be purchased under a conditional sale contract or with use of any security agreement or other vendor's

D. With its final application for payment by the Owner, the Contractor shall disclose, on a form prescribed by the Commissioner, all unpaid obligations contracted in connection with the work performed under this Contract. The Contractor agrees that within 15 days following receipt of final payment, it will pay such obligations in cash and furnish satisfactory evidence of such payment to the Owner.

Article 4 - Receipts & Releases of Liens

The Owner may require the Contractor to attach to each request for payment its acknowledgement of payment and all subcontractors' and materialmen's acknowledgements of payment for work done and materials, equipment and fixtures furnished through the date covered by the previous payment. Concurrently with the final payment, the Owner may require the Contractor to execute a waiver or release of lien for all work performed and materials furnished hereunder, and may require the Contractor to obtain similar waivers or releases from all subcontractors and materialmen.

Article 5 - Requirements of Contractor

A. The Contractor shall furnish, at its own expense, all building and other permits, licenses, tools, equipment and temporary structures necessary for the construction of the project.* The Contractor shall give all required notices and shall comply with all applicable codes, laws, ordinances, rules and regulations, and protective covenants, and with the current regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, wherever applicable. The Contractor further shall comply with the provisions of the "Manual of Accident Prevention in Construction" of the Associated General Contractors of America. The Contractor shall immediately notify the Commissioner of the delivery of all permits, licenses, certificates of inspection, certificates of occupancy, and any other such certificates and instruments required by law, regardless of to whom issued, and shall cause them to be displayed to the Commissioner upon his request.

*except owner shall be required to pay all tap-in fees required by any governmental or municipal authority.

B. If the Contractor observes that the Drawings and Specifications are at variance with any applicable codes, laws, ordinances, rules or regulations, or protective covenants, it shall promptly notify the Architect in writing, and any necessary changes shall be made as provided in this Contract for changes in the Drawings and Specifications. C. Upon completion of construction, the Contractor shall furnish to the owner a survey showing the location on the site of all improvements constructed thereon, and showing the location of all water, sewer, gas and electric lines and mains, and of all existing utility easements. Such survey shall be prepared by a licensed surveyor who shall certify that the work is installed and erected entirely upon the land covered by the mortgage and within any building restriction lines on said land, and does not overhang or otherwise encroach upon any easement or right-of-way of others. In addition, if the Owner shall so require, the Contractor shall furnish a survey with each application for payment for any improvements, including structures and utilities, not theretofore located on a survey.

D. The Contractor shall assume full responsibility for the maintenance of all landscaping which may be required by the Drawings and Specifications until such a time as both parties to this Contract shall receive written notice from the Commissioner that such landscaping has been finally completed. The Owner hereby agrees to make available to the Contractor, for such purpose, without cost to the latter, such facilities as water, hose and sprinkler.

Article 6 - Assurance of Completion

The Contractor shall furnish to the Owner assurance of completion of the work in the form of a performance bond which shall include a rider in favor of the Township of White in the amount of $50,000.00 to assure said township that if the condition of 26th Avenue in said township deteriorates because of construction or construction vehicles passing upon it, said road shall be restored to its condition at the commencement of work. Such assurance of completion shall run to the Owner and the Lender as obligees and shall contain a provision whereby the surety agrees that any claim or right of action that either the Owner or the Lender might have thereunder may be assigned to the Commissioner.

The Contractor shall file no mechanic's or materialman's lien or maintain any claim against the Owner's real estate or improvements for or on account of any work done, labor performed or materials furnished under this contract.

Article 8 - Right of Entry and Interpretation

A. The Lender and its agents or assigns and the Commissioner and his agents shall, at all times during construction, have the right of entry and free access to the project and the right to inspect all work done and materials, equipment and fixtures furnished, installed or stored in and about the project. For such purpose, the Contractor shall furnish such enclosed working space as the Lender or Commissioner may require and find acceptable as to location, size, accommodations and furnishings.

B. The Commissioner shall also have the right to interpret the Contract Documents and to determine compliance therewith.

Article 9 - Assignments, Subcontracts and Termination

A. This contract shall not be assignable by either party without the prior written consent of the other party, the Lender and the Commissioner, except that the Owner may assign the Contract, or any rights hereunder, to the Lender or the Commissioner.

B. The Contractor shall not subcontract all of the work to be performed hereunder without the prior written consent of the Owner, the Lender and the Commissioner.

C. Upon request by the Owner, the Lender or the Commissioner, the Contractor shall disclose the names of all persons with whom it has contracted or will contract with respect to work to be done and materials and equipment to be furnished hereunder.

D. The Contractor understands that the work under this contract is to be financed by a building loan to be secured by a mortgage and insured by the Commissioner, and that the terms of said loan are set forth in a Building Loan Agreement between the Owner as Borrower and ... as Lender. The Contractor further understands that said Building Loan Agreement provides that, in event of the failure of the Owner to perform its obligations to the Lender thereunder, the Lender may, as attorney-in-fact for the Owner, undertake the completion of the project in accordance with this Contract. In the event the Lender elects not to undertake such completion, the Contractor's obligations under this contract shall terminate.

Article 10 - Certification of Actual Cost

A. The "actual cost of construction", as used in Article 3 above, shall include all items of cost and expenses of labor, materials for construction, equipment and fixtures, field engineering, sales taxes, workmen's compensation insurance, social security, public liability insurance, job overhead and other expenses directly connected with construction, and including general overhead expenses, but excluding kick-backs, rebates or discounts received or receivable in connection with the construction of the project; and excluding any return on or cost of the Contractor's working capital, such return on or cost of working capital being as part of or to be paid from the Contractor's fee or profit.

B. The Contractor shall keep accurate records of account of the said actual cost of construction, and shall, upon demand, make such records and invoices, receipts, subcontracts and other information pertaining to the construction of the project available for inspection by inspection by the Owner and the Commissioner.

C. With its final application for payment, the Contractor shall furnish to the Owner a completed "Contractor's Certificate of Actual Cost", which shall be accompanied and supported by an independent public accountant's certificate as to the actual cost (in form acceptable to the Commissioner).

D. The Contractor shall include in all subcontracts, equipment leases and purchase orders a provision requiring the subcontractor, equipment lessor or supplier to certify its costs incurred in connection with the project, in the event the Commissioner determines there is an identity of interest between either the Owner or the Contractor and any such subcontractor, equipment lessor or supplier.

21st Avenue, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania 15010 its successors, and assigns (jointly and severally, hereinafter referred to as Owners) and the undersigned Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and his successors (hereinafter referred to as Secretary).

In consideration of the endorsement of insurance by the Secretary of the above described note or in consideration of the consent of the Secretary to the transfer of the mortgaged property or the sale and conveyance of the mortgaged property by the Secretary, and in order to comply with the requirements of the National Housing Act, as amended and the Regulations adopted by the Secretary pursuant thereto, Owners agree for themselves, their successors, heirs and assigns, that in connection with the mortgaged property and the project operated thereon and so long as the contract of mortgage insurance continues in effect, and during such further period of time as the Secretary shall be the owner, holder or reinsurer of the mortgage, or during say time the Secretary shall be the owner, holder or reinsurer of the mortgage, or during say time the Secretary is obligated to insure a mortgage on the mortgaged property:

1. Owners, except as limited by paragraph 17 hereof, assume and agree to make promptly all payments due under the note and mortgage.

2. (a) Owners shall establish or continue to maintain a reserve fund for replacements by the allocation to such reserve fund in a separate account with the mortgage or in a safe and responsible depository designated by the mortgagee, concurrently with the beginning of payments towards amortization of the principal of the mortgage insured or held by the Secretary of an amount equal to $920.95 per month unless a different date or amount is approved in writing by the Secretary.

Such funds, whether in the form of a cash deposit or invested in obligations of, or fully guaranteed as to principal by, the United States of America shall at all times be under the control of the mortgages. Disbursements from such fund, whether for the purpose of effecting replacement of structural elements, and mechanical equipment of the project or for say other purpose, may be made only after receiving the consent in writing of the Secretary. In the event of a default in the terms of the mortgage, pursuant to which the loan has been accelerated, the Secretary may apply or authorize the application of the balance in such fund to the amount due the mortgage debt as accelerated.

(b) Where Owners are acquiring a project already subject to an insured mortgage, the reserve fund for replacements to be established will be equal to the amount due to be in such fund under existing agreements or charter provisions at the time Owners acquire such project, and payments hereunder shall begin with the first payment due on the mortgage after acquisition, unless some other method of establishing and maintaining the fund is approved in writing by the Secretary.

3. Real property covered by the mortgage and this agreement is described in Schedule A attached hereto.

(This paragraph 4 is not applicable to cases insured under Section 232).

4. (a) Owners shall make dwelling accommodation and services of the project available to occupants at charges not exceeding those established in accordance with a rental schedule approved in writing by the Secretary. Accommodations shall not be rented for a period of less than thirty (30) days, or, unless the mortgage is insured under Section 231, for more than three years. Commercial facilities shall be rented for such and upon terms as approved by the Secretary. Subleasing of dwelling accommodations, except for subleases of single dwelling accommodations by the tenant thereof, shall be prohibited without prior written approval of Owners and the Secretary and any case shall so provide. Upon discovery of any unapproved sublease, Owners shall immediately demand cancellation and notify the Secretary thereof.

(b) Upon prior written approval by the Secretary, Owners may charge to and receive from any tenant such amounts as from time to time may be mutually agreed upon between the tenant upon and the Owner for any facilities and/or services which may be furnished by the Owner or others to such tenant upon his request, in addition to the facilities and services included in the approved rental schedule.

(c) The Secretary will at any time entertain a written request for a rent increase properly supported by substantiating evidence and within a reasonable time shall:

(i) Approve a rental schedule that is necessary to compensate for any net increase, occurring since the last approved rental schedule, in taxes (other than income taxes) and operating and maintenance cost over which

Owners have no effective control, or

(ii) Deny the increase stating the reasons therefor.

5. (a) If the mortgage is originally a Secretary-held purchase money mortgage, or is originally endorsed for insurance under any Section other than Sections 231 or 232, Owners shall not in selecting tenants discriminate against any person or persons by reason of the fact that there are children in the family.

6. Owners shall not without the prior written approval of the Secretary:

(a) Convey, transfer, or encumber any of the mortgaged property, or permit the conveyance, transfer or encumbrance of such property.

(b) Assign, transfer, dispose of, or encumber any personal property of the project, including rents, or pay out any funds except from surplus cash, except for reasonable operating expenses and necessary repairs.

(c) Convey, assign, or transfer any beneficial interest in any trust holding title to the property, or the interest of any general partner in a partnership owning the property, or any right to manage or receive the rents and profits from the mortgaged property.

(d) Remodel, add to, reconstruct, or demolish any part of the mortgaged property or subtract from any real or personal property of the project.

(e) Make, or receive and retain, any distribution of assets or any income of any kind of the project except surplus cash and except on the following conditions:

(1) All distributions shall be made only as of and after the end of a semiannual or annual fiscal period, and only as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction;

(2) No distribution shall be made from borrowed funds, prior to the completion of the project or when there is any default under this Agreement or under the note or mortgage;
